

Section 1 Day 8 Lady Bay to Stranraer

A short journey of 8 miles today, on the sheltered Loch Ryan. Gibby has checked the conditions. Lady Bay and the Pride of the Solway launch at Lady Bay. The Annan ladies coxed by Alan.

Today's Crew

Raymond

Becki

Vikki

Jacqueline & Hamish

Vikki says 'I came to rowing because of Becki, and stayed inspired by the Ancient Mariners & Raymond. I love the sense of family, friendship, fun, & joy. Truly wonderful people pulling together in an amazing setting. What could be better?'

Wigtown Bay's team is coxed by Raymond. He has travelled almost the length of D&G to get here today, capturing sunrise at Carlingwark Loch, Castle Douglas en route.

Met by Milleur Maid, rowed by Tim, Naomi, Athena, Steve, coxed by Colin.

Safety boat crewed by Hannah Logan

The shoreside party begins as soon as the teams have landed. Wendi's organising up a storm with Tim's help.

The baton 'Community' is handed over to Stranraer for the beginning of Section 2.

A BBQ at the boathouse for all. Five Kingdoms goes down a Dark Storm. Jack gets some Bishops Finger. Baking courtesy of the Steam Packet.

